In Support of AltaMed's Huntington Beach Community Clinic

Founded in 1969, HBCC serves as a critical component of Orange County's healthcare safety net system, providing over 53,000 patient visits annually. HBCC is a division of AltaMed Health Services, the largest community health center in California. AltaMed currently sees over 300,000 patients with over one million patient visits per year.

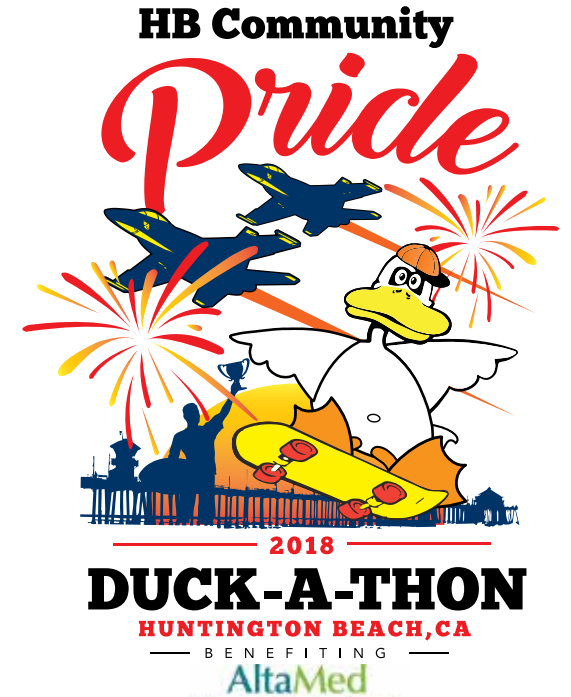

The clinic offers access to affordable and high-quality primary care, dental care, breast cancer screening, prenatal & pediatric care, pharmaceutical support, health and nutrition education, teen services and insurance enrollment assistance.

Thank you to the members of the Duck-A-Thon committee and supporters of this event for ensuring that the Huntington Beach clinic can continue to provide the highest quality care to the families and individuals in our community.
