In 2015, I walked into the clinic at a very low point of my life. I had recently been diagnosed with cancer and placed on disability after losing my job, my house and my wife. After being evaluated by Dr. Flores, I found out the work needed would be more extensive and costly than I could afford. Sandra Vega and Elizabeth Saavedra were conducting interviews with patients. When I told them my story, they immediately began to provide alternate payment options and told me, "We will do our very best to help you because that's what AltaMed does." I was hopeful and grateful and could not fight back the tears of joy. Thank you AltaMed and the amazing staff, who spent the time to listen to my story, understand my struggles and help me when I thought all was hopeless.
